REGISTERED ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH SPECIALIST BIENNIAL RENEWAL

Here is your biennial renewal notice for registration as an environmental health specialist. Section 106700 of the Health & Safety Code requires a biennial renewal fee of $92.00 to be paid by registered environmental health specialists (REHSs) on or before the first day of January of every second year.

Failure to pay the renewal fee on or before the postmarked date of January 31, 2002 will result in the suspension of your registration and will render your registration invalid. A penalty of $46.00 is charged for each year or portion thereof for failure to pay the renewal fee. Continued delinquency for three years will result in the revocation of your registration. If your registration is revoked, you will be required to reapply for registration, meet all current requirements, and take the REHS examination again.

Section 106695 states that a person who is at least 50 years old or is collecting retirement benefits and has been a working REHS in California for at least ten years in an area covered by the scope of practice [106615(e)] may renew their registration upon payment of a $25.00 fee [106700(b)]. Keep in mind, however, that this represents inactive status, and the person may not work in a job requiring registration as an environmental health specialist.

Please make check or money order payable to DHS, EHS Registration Program. If your registration is paid by a third party such as a county treasurer, please make sure that the check and the renewal form are mailed to the correct address.

Remember that you are required to notify the REHS Program in writing of any change of address. Your registration fees are used to support the activities of the REHS Program. We appreciate your continued support of the REHS profession.
